

Jason Berken Baseball Camp

December 19-20

From pitching to hitting to fielding, all camp activities and exercises are geared toward skill improvement, competition and fun!

With over 17 years of baseball experience, including four years with nationally ranked Clemson University and four years with the Baltimore Orioles, Jason Berken has the experience necessary to provide complete instruction on all facets of the game of baseball.

Campers receive eight hours of instruction by professional players and coaches with a maximum of one-on-one instruction, plus a free camp t-shirt. Pictures and autographs are available from all instructors.
